If your child is participating in the Wednesday afterschool programs:

It is very important to let us know as soon as possible if your child will be absent from ROCK on a Wednesday afterschool. When we do not hear from you we assume your child is missing. Our first call will be to the school your child attends. Next will be a day care provider, parent's work or cell phones, or emergency contact phone numbers. We realize sometimes parents forget to tell us their child will be absent, but once in a while your child may forget it is Wednesday and will end up some place you are not expecting them to be.
